

INTRODUCTION

This handbook is intended to be a general reference for Central Michigan University Students, Cooperating Teachers, and University Coordinators working with EDU 432 and EDU 458. The information includes a general timeline of expectations related to the student teaching experience and the documentation required by the Center for Student Services/Student Teaching at Central Michigan University.

Each chapter relates to a specific segment of the student teaching program. Requirements and expectations are listed to help guide the student teaching experience. If you have questions or need additional information about the information contained in this document, contact the Student Teaching office by phone (989-774-4411) or visit our web site on the World Wide Web <http://www.tepd.cmich.edu>

During the student teaching experience, students are enrolled in EDU 432 and EDU 458 for their regular education student teaching experience. The primary resource for the student teacher and the cooperating teacher during the semester is the University Coordinator. If at any time, as a student teacher or cooperating teacher, you have any questions, concerns or need information, contact your assigned University Coordinator.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT STATEMENT

Central Michigan University provides individuals with disabilities reasonable accommodations to participate in university activities, programs and services. Individuals with disabilities requiring an accommodation to participate in an activity, program or service should call the activity, program or service director. Our office can be reached at (989)774-4411.
